

Level 2 Award in Food Safety for Retail

Sample Examination Questions

1 Which of the following best supports the multiplication of bacteria?

- A High-carbohydrate food
- B Fat-free food
- C Protein-rich food
- D High-sugar food

3 What is the main purpose of wearing protective clothing?

- A It looks smarter and cleaner
- B It is easy to wash and dry
- C It protects food from contamination
- D It is comfortable to wear

2 Food handlers should wash:

- A their hands in a wash hand basin
- B utensils in a wash hand basin
- C their hands in any sink
- D food in a wash hand basin

4 What should you do if you are suffering from the symptoms of a food-borne illness?

- A Stay in bed until you feel better
- B Tell your supervisor or manager
- C Take a tablet, then go to work
- D Go to work and carry on as normal

Training Division
Chartered Institute of Environmental Health
Chadwick Court, 15 Hatfields, London SE1 8DJ
Telephone 020 7827 5800 Training Division (Option 1)
Email customersupport@cieh.org Web www.cieh.org/training

© CIEH, 2006
Printed November 2006